The Silent Prayer Community is temporarily discontinued until a Coordinator for this ministry is found. If you might be interested in this position, please call 737-1333.

Gardening Update

We are beginning to make progress on the gardens at our Churches, but we are still in need of some more gardeners!

Special thanks to Priscilla Onizuk and Pat Gaines for volunteering to take care of the Front Entrance Garden and Blessed Virgin Mary Statue Garden at St. John's. The weeding has been accomplished and will continue throughout the summer. Flowers have been planted and next on the agenda is pruning of the shrubs.

Special thanks to Margaret Pinckney who has been weeding diligently the Angel Garden in front of Holy Angels. Margaret has now been joined by another garden volunteer, Pete Bonikowski. The weeding will be continued throughout the summer with planting of bulbs this Fall.

Special thanks to Bob and Patty Cox who have volunteered to maintain the Fremont Hall Steps Garden. Although Bob and Patty will take over this garden, we are asking for help to initially get this garden in better condition. We need volunteers to help with the initial clean-up. Large weeds and underbrush have taken over this area and many of the landscape ties need replacing. Mulch is definitely needed. Someone with a truck for getting the supplies is needed. So if you can help with this initial clean-up, we would appreciate it. A special clean-up morning will be scheduled.

We still need more gardeners to "adopt a garden" at Holy Angels: the three Memorial Plaza Gardens in front of the church, the Memorial Garden of the Unborn next to the San Damiano entrance, and the Parish Center Blessed Virgin Mary Statue garden. Please contact Patti (cell 302-593-5795) or walterspb@comcast.net.

2018 Mission Cooperative Appeal

The Propagation of the Faith Office of our Diocese has invited the Diocese of Kumbakonam, India to speak to us about their mission activities and challenges. Accordingly, Rev. M.S. Selva Raj will be speaking to us during all the Masses on the weekend of July 21/22, This Diocese, started in 1899 in the State of Tamil Nadu, India, has an area of 7823 square kilometers and a Catholic population of 213,000 (6% of the population). It is served by 210 diocesan and 63 religious priests, 588 nuns and 15 trained lay catechists. The Diocese has certain concrete and meaningful goals for a New Evangelization in the 3rd millennium, including:

- 1) Establishing 10 more new parishes, each with a new church and rectory. At present, this Diocese has 93 parishes and 618 mission-stations. Many of the missions are so large that they have to be made independent parishes with a resident priest. Most Catholics have no vehicle to travel to the main parish church for Sunday Mass. But the people are unable to give financial support for such pressing pastoral projects.
- 2) Providing the 126 Catholic schools in the mission with better facilities, tools, children's Bibles, a projector, catechetical materials in the form of DVDs, pictures, textbooks and workbooks to improve the quality of religious and faith formation of Catholic and non-Catholic students in mission schools.
- 3) Enabling 485 nuns and 2155 Catholic Teachers in charge of catechetical, educational, medical and social ministries throughout this rural Diocese to educate the children in the Catholic faith and to help the people, particularly the poor, for their integral development.
- 4) Providing buildings and infra-structure to the mission schools in villages since education is a main means of evangelization while the government pays most of the teachers.
- 5) Education of more young men in the seminary, since the Diocese abounds in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, so that some could be sent as missionaries to missions abroad where there is a shortage of priests. Every year, an average of 50 young men and women go out of this Diocese to other missions in India and abroad to serve God and His people as missionaries.
- 6) Education of 1000 very poor or orphan children from poor families every year by providing them with free boarding and lodging.

All of the above mission projects are 80% dependent on MCP funds. The Diocese is trying to materialize these missionary goals, depending on the availability of funds. The mission and spiritual prospects of Kumbakonam Diocese are bright, but its needs are many and pressing. 60% of its Catholics are depressingly poor. Therefore, your fervent prayers and generous help are earnestly requested for building the Kingdom of God, in and throughout the Diocese of Kumbakonam, India.

"Roman Collar"

Among the vestments worn by the Catholic clergy, none is more distinctive than the priest's Roman collar. Although a fairly recent addition to clerical wardrobe, the collar helps people immediately identify their spiritual leader. Seminarians may also wear the collar before their ordination.

The Roman collar is a white band circling the neck, supported by a garment usually of black cloth. The height of the white band may vary. The black cloth may conceal all but a small square of white or leave it entirely exposed. The variations in the size and visibility of the collar stem from its national origins and have nothing to do with the rank of the clergy. Some prelates, though, may wear shades of purple or red cloth instead of black to designate their station.

Members of a religious order may wear a collar the color of their habit. In the last part of the 20th century the clergy shirt became available in various colors, in imitation of the diversification of color in professional men's clothing in the secular sphere. Black, though, remains the characteristic color for clergy apparel.

The practice of clergy wearing a special collar began in the 15th century and became widespread by the 17th. The collar simplified their wardrobe and became as much a sign of poverty as of position. As with other aspects of clerical vesture, it drew its inspiration from contemporary secular fashion but became identified with religious wear and developed accordingly. The white collar was originally made of linen, but today it is most commonly plastic, providing comfort in its wear, sharpness in appearance, and ease in its cleaning.

When the clergy wear liturgical vestments at church the Roman collar may not be visible, but it remains the standard uniform for the clergy on the job.

En aquel tiempo, llamó Jesús a los Doce, los envió de dos en dos y les dio poder sobre los espíritus inmundos. Les mandó que no llevaran nada para el camino: ni pan, ni mochila, ni dinero en el cinto, sino únicamente un bastón, sandalias y una sola túnica.

Y les dijo: “Cuando entren en una casa, quédense en ella hasta que se vayan de ese lugar. Si alguno. Si en alguna parte nos lo reciben ni los escuchan, al abandonar ese lugar, sacúdanse el polvo de los pies, como una advertencia para ellos.

Los discípulos se fueron a predicar el arrepentimiento. Expulsaban demonios, unguían con aceite a los enfermos y los curaban.
