2018 Mission Cooperative Appeal

The Propagation of the Faith Office of our Diocese has invited the Diocese of Kumbakonam, India to speak to us about their mission activities and challenges. Accordingly, Rev. M.S. Selva Raj will be speaking to us during all the Masses on the weekend of July 21/22, This Diocese, started in 1899 in the State of Tamil Nadu, India, has an area of 7823 square kilometers and a Catholic population of 213,000 (6% of the population). It is served by 210 diocesan and 63 religious priests, 588 nuns and 15 trained lay catechists. The Diocese has certain concrete and meaningful goals for a New Evangelization in the 3rd millennium, including:

- 1) Establishing 10 more new parishes, each with a new church and rectory. At present, this Diocese has 93 parishes and 618 mission-stations. Many of the missions are so large that they have to be made independent parishes with a resident priest. Most Catholics have no vehicle to travel to the main parish church for Sunday Mass. But the people are unable to give financial support for such pressing pastoral projects.
- 2) Providing the 126 Catholic schools in the mission with better facilities, tools, children's Bibles, a projector, catechetical materials in the form of DVDs, pictures, textbooks and workbooks to improve the quality of religious and faith formation of Catholic and non-Catholic students in mission schools.
- 3) Enabling 485 nuns and 2155 Catholic Teachers in charge of catechetical, educational, medical and social ministries throughout this rural Diocese to educate the children in the Catholic faith and to help the people, particularly the poor, for their integral development.
- 4) Providing buildings and infra-structure to the mission schools in villages since education is a main means of evangelization while the government pays most of the teachers.
- 5) Education of more young men in the seminary, since the Diocese abounds in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, so that some could be sent as missionaries to missions abroad where there is a shortage of priests. Every year, an average of 50 young men and women go out of this Diocese to other missions in India and abroad to serve God and His people as missionaries.
- 6) Education of 1000 very poor or orphan children from poor families every year by providing them with free boarding and lodging.

All of the above mission projects are 80% dependent on MCP funds. The Diocese is trying to materialize these missionary goals, depending on the availability of funds. The mission and spiritual prospects of Kumbakonam Diocese are bright, but its needs are many and pressing. 60% of its Catholics are depressingly poor. Therefore, your fervent prayers and generous help are earnestly requested for building the Kingdom of God, in and throughout the Diocese of Kumbakonam, India.

Liturgy Corner

"Where are the Readings?"

Many places of worship provide a printed aid with the Scripture readings for the Assembly. Individual sheets of paper, pamphlets, magazines and hymnals may contain music, responses, and the spoken readings of the Mass. Several publishers market seasonal pamphlets with the readings. Many people call such participation aids "missalettes", but that word is copyrighted for use by only one publisher.

When the faithful follow the Scriptures in print, they lower their heads away from the liturgical action and do not pay attention to the Lector or Gospel Reader. Jesus is present in the proclamation of the Scriptures, and watching and hearing is the preferred sense for receiving that proclamation; not following along in a book.

In some cases, printed Scripture texts compensate for poor acoustics, unprepared lectors, and hearing impairment. But improved acoustics, sound reinforcement and trained lectors help to overcome these obstacles. All are encouraged to read the Scriptures before coming to Mass (see bulletin page 1.) Preparation enables us to hear with more understanding, even without a printed text. Blessed Pope John Paul II argued that without personal [understanding] of the word before each Sunday, "it is difficult for the liturgical proclamation of the word of God alone to produce the fruit we might expect" (Dies Domini 40).

A Vocation Reflection 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 8, 2018

In today's first reading, the author of the Book of Wisdom says, “they shall know that a prophet has been among them.” Through lives of chastity, poverty and obedience, religious women and men throughout our Diocese serve as prophets: their consecrated lives point to the Kingdom of God, and they remind us that it's worth giving up anything for the sake of that treasure. Do you have what it takes to live that way? If you think so, please call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302) 573-3113; vocations@cdow.org. Be sure to visit their website, www.cdow.org/vocations.

XIV DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Lecturas

Ezequiel 2: 2-5

Salmo Responsorial: Salmo 122

II Lectura 2 Corintios 12:7-10

Evangelio Marcos 6:1-6

Este pasaje del Evangelio tiene raíces profundas en la tradición de Jesús de Nazaret, quien fue rechazado en su propia tierra y hasta por su parentela. Nos gusta pensar que Jesús fue una figura muy querida por sus paisanos y que las multitudes se arremolinaban en torno de él, pero olvidamos la tremenda verdad que la historia nos desliza por debajo de la mesa El rotundo fracaso del Mesías. Con estos navegaron los primeros predicadores del Evangelio (Jn 7:5). ¿Cómo es que Jesús de Nazaret es el Mesías de Dios si nadie creyó en él y fue ajusticiado como un criminal? Esto obligó a repensar la historia del Galileo y a expurgar las Escrituras para encontrar el sentido de las cosas. El desconcierto en la sinagoga de Nazaret nace porque los paisanos no ajustan su modo de pensar con lo que ven o sea el poder de hacer milagros y la sabiduría para explicar las Escrituras.

Ya están las registraciones de catecismo, primer ingreso para Primera Comunión, llevar certificado de bautismo. Para confirmación certificados de bautismo y primera comunión.

Plática pre-bautismal Julio 8 después de misa de 1:00 pm.

Grupo de Oración todos los viernes a las 7:00 pm.
