A Smile

A smile has a language all its own, revealing the joys that are yours alone.

Expressing your feelings for the one you love, as you share your happiness with God above.

A smile can say "Good morning",

A smile can say "I care".

The light in your face shows the meaning of a love beyond compare.

A smile can say "I love you",

In a most revealing way.

A smile can lift your spirits, Through the misery of the day.

Absorb this little lesson,

That each of us can learn.

When someone beams a smile at you,

Give a big smile in return.

L.B.

Why Catholic Cemeteries?

In today's gospel, we hear that Jesus was moved by compassion for a widowed mother and raised her dead son to life. This was before His own death and resurrection from the dead. Jesus, by his cross and resurrection, has set us free from earthly death and has given each of us the gift of eternal life. In a world that regards death as a sad end, Catholic cemeteries stand as visible reminders of our faith in Jesus and an enduring hope in eternal life. They are the resting places for our mortal remains until the final resurrection of all the dead on the last day. Our burial together, as followers of Christ, is enduring and powerful testament to our hope in eternal life with God. For more information on making your cemetery arrangements please call (302) 656-3323.

A Vocation Reflection 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Pharisees were concerned with pointing out sin; Jesus came to forgive sin and to reconcile sinners. Is God calling you to share in the ministry of reconciliation as a Catholic priest? If you are a healthy young man who believes he may have a vocation to the priesthood and if you're willing to embark on the adventure of a lifetime, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations at (302) 573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org. Be sure to visit our website, www.cdow.org/vocations!

XI DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

I Lectura 2 Samuel 12:7-10.13

Salmo Responsorial 32 “ Perdon Señor, mi pecado y mi culpa”.

II Lectura Gálatas 2: 16, 19-21

Evangelio Lucas 7:36-8:3

El caminar de Jesús es anuncio y realidad del reino de Dios; unos lo rechazan, otros no. San Lucas pinta una línea entre el Israel incrédulo (7:9-30) y los extranjeros, “advenedizos y pecadores” que abrazan la visita de Dios y se benefician de ella. En la casa de simón, Jesús hoy confronta las concepciones religiosas y sociales sobre la mujer pecadora con la perspectiva del evangelio del Reino.

El; banquete es la expresión mejor de comunión de los participantes. Hay reglas que seguir pero la mujer no se atiene a ellas, porque quiere acercarse al profeta. Irrumpe y altera el” buen orden”, que el fariseo Simón no fue capaz de guardar como anfitrión. Sus acciones obligan a Jesús a contar una parábola que pone las cosas en su lugar. A los ojos de Dios, uno no es mejor por pecar menos que otro. Uno es mejor porque muestra más amor por el perdón recibido de Dios.
