What is Lectio Divina?

"There are many kinds of Christian meditation, but above all is listening to God through the scriptures, ruminating on the Word, a deep conversation of hearing and responding. In meditation we read not just for information; we probe, ponder, and explore so that the words of Scripture become for us the Word of God in our lives. ...

There is another level of meditative scripture reading: to ask, "What is it saying to me? Does the text have a 'word' for me in this day and time?"

These words from E. Glenn Hinson in The Mind of Christ express beautifully what happens when we meet for Lectio Divina. Using the 4 R's of Read, Reflect, Respond, Rest, we focus on the Gospel Reading for the following Sunday. We meet at 7:00 PM at the Parish Center (PC3) on the second and fourth Wednesday nights of the month.

Please join us for an evening to see if Lectio Divina is a way for you to enrich your love and appreciation of Scripture. For more information, phone Mary at (302) 453-9613.

With the hard work of volunteers, contributions from community merchants, and the grace of God, the two community plots have thus far produced nearly 400 lbs. of fresh-picked produce at an estimated, conservative value of $650. The produce was delivered throughout the summer to a family shelter, elder residence, and individual needy families in the immediate area. AND, we're not done yet.

Root vegetables, potatoes and leeks, have yet to be harvested in mid-Autumn. Please pray for the continued success of the community garden and consider joining us in the 2013 season in whatever way you can with your God-given gifts. Contacts are Lois (302) 454-9412 or Marie (302) 547-8521.
