Prayer for Peace in Iraq

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops are inviting all Catholics to pray for peace in Iraq on Sunday, August 17. Bishop Richard Pates of Des Moines Iowa, made the request on August 6, sending the Bishops the text of a prayer written by the Chaldean catholic Patriarch of Iraq, His Beatitude Louis Rafael Sako.

Bishop Pates recounted the struggles of Christians and others in Iraq who have faced the destruction, burning and looting of churches, homes and businesses and, under threat of the Islamic State (ISIS) to join their extremist brand is Islam, have fled for their lives. Accordingly, he urges Catholics to let their elected representatives know of their concern that humanitarian assistance reach Christian and other religious minorities who are suffering in Iraq, Syria and other countries.

Bishop Pates also noted Pope Francis' calls for peace in Iraq and his observation that "violence generates more violence; dialogue is the only path to peace".

The full text of Patriarch Sako's prayer for peace follows:

*Lord,
The plight of our country is deep and the suffering of Christians is severe and frightening.
Therefore, we ask you, Lord, to spare our lives and to grant us patience and courage to continue our witness of Christian values with trust and hope.
Lord, peace is the foundation of life:
Grant us the peace and stability that will enable us
To live with each other without fear and anxiety,
And with dignity and joy.
Glory be to you forever.*
