Support the Cathedral of Saint Peter

Special Collection for its maintenance and preservation August 22/23 2015

The Cathedral of Saint Peter is the Seat of the Diocese of Wilmington and the Bishop’s own church. This beautiful and historic church is in need of our help. The weekend of August 22/23, a special collection for the maintenance and preservation of the Cathedral of Saint Peter will be taken up in all parishes in our Diocese. Please be as generous as you can. For more information, including a letter from Bishop Malooly, a message from the Cathedral’s Administrator and a video tour of the Cathedral, go to www.cdow.org.

Silent Prayer Community

Our parish has a group of people who will earnestly pray for any needs that you might have. This is done anonymously via a telephone prayer chain. If you have a special need about which you need prayer, please call 894-0726, 731-4297 or 737-1333, and our members will pray for you. Please let us know when your prayer has been answered, so that we too might give thanks.

Food Pantry – St. John-Holy Angels Collaboration with Holy Family

Report from the field . . . Mr. Judd at Holy Family - “During the week of 6/22 - 6/26, Holy Angels and Holy Family joined to feed 33 families. That’s an average of 6-7 families a day. The shelves are reasonably well stocked, but typically draw down during the summer as parishioners go on vacation, but hunger does not. Thanks to the group at St. John-Holy Angels and Holy Family for all they do. Holy Family Outreach is active.” To try to make up for what the summer vacationers aren’t putting in, can we add a couple of items to our usual donation?

Part-time Bookkeeper Needed at St. John-Holy Angels

A position for a part-time bookkeeper, at least 20 hours per week, is presently available here at St. John-Holy Angels Parish. Applicants must have the following qualifications: Associate Degree in Business or Accounting with a minimum of 3 years’ experience in non-profit accounting and human resources. Excellent written and oral communications, interpersonal skills, working knowledge of BusinessWorks, Microsoft Word and Excel required. Experience with Parish Data System is helpful. Applications should be e-mailed to apress@holyangels.net or mailed to: Amy Press, St. John-Holy Angels Parish, 82 Possum Park Road, Newark, DE 19711.

Social Concerns

Care for God’s Creation

In the days following release of Pope Francis’ encyclical on the care of our “common home”, “Laudato Si”, the media had a lot to say about its content and the impact it would have on the world. Two websites that may give you more insight into this challenging topic are: <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/environment/>, which contains a link to the entire encyclical, and <http://www.catholic climate covenant.org>, where you can learn how to reduce your carbon footprint and other climate change information from a Catholic perspective.

Bulletin Advertiser of the Week

Please remember to patronize the advertisers on the back of our bulletin. This week's featured advertiser is:

Silence

Several times during the Mass, the liturgical texts invite us to observe silence.

It makes you wonder if the folks who wrote those instructions had any idea how noisy a typical pew can be. Kneelers, hymnals, and coughing make it hard for anyone to remember what silence sounds like!

Still, the liturgy soldiers on, suggesting that at certain moments we just keep quiet.

For example, when the priest says, "Let us pray," he really means what he says. How do you normally pray? Hands folded? Eyes closed? Calming yourself down so you can concentrate on the presence of God? Keeping silent? The presider is inviting us to assume our prayer position. But sometimes he's busy signaling the server, flipping pages and adjusting his glasses. Sometimes we're whispering, looking at the bulletin, or just wishing he'd get on with it so we can sit down again. Silence here is an invitation to pray, not to squirm! Even after the psalm and after the second reading, before the gospel, we are to observe silence to reflect on what we've just heard proclaimed in our midst. Do we?

Another occasion for silent prayer is after communion. The liturgy bids us all to be quiet for a while to thank God for the wondrous sacrament we have received. Sometimes people want their silence during communion; they don't want to be disturbed by singing (we are to sing after receiving communion!). Others can't stand the silence after communion because they want to get out to the parking lot before everyone else!

But silence follows communion. Communion itself is one of the most important times to sing. It gathers us as the Body of Christ and wraps us in joyful song, since spoken words or silent thought can't express what music can. Then, after all have received the mystery, we pause together to meditate on its splendor. Singing followed by silence helps the whole assembly celebrate communion together.

Sometimes we observe silence after the readings or after the homily. The first Eucharistic Prayer invites us to silence when it prays for the living and the dead.

Silence is hard in our culture. Most of us habitually turn on a TV or radio. But we also know the benefits of being in silence once in a while outside, enjoying nature, getting some quiet time alone at home or in our room. Silence is golden. And the liturgy yearns for us to have some.

Visitors for Christ

Visitors for Christ are men and women commissioned by the parish to serve and minister to the sick, the convalescing, the elderly and the homebound of our parish family. We make short visits to homes, hospitals, and nursing homes bringing the prayers of the Parish and the Eucharist when requested. We also offer the opportunity to pray the rosary with you for your personal intentions and the needs of our community. If you or someone you know would like a visit from the Visitors For Christ, please call the Parish Center, 731-2200, or June, 366-0711.

1 Lectura Jeremías 23: 1-6

Salmo Responsorial 23

“El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta”.

II Lectura Efesios 2: 13-18

Evangelio Marcos 6: 30-18

El evangelio nos cuenta el regreso de los enviados a informar a Jesús de su misión. Los enviados reportan a Jesús todo lo que enseñaron e hicieron. Ellos realizan lo mismo que hace Jesús. (proclaman que se conviertan). La fidelidad del discípulo o enviado se nota en el éxito de la misión, que se mide más por su profundidad y calidad que por la cantidad y expansión.

Pensemos en el descanso, Jesús responde a las aglomeraciones que causa la aceptación del evangelio, retirándose para estar a solas y orar. Lo mismo quiere hacer con los suyos pero el descanso no es reposo ni entretenimiento. El hombre bíblico encuentra descanso en el templo, en los atrios de Dios, solazándose en las enseñanzas del Thora y participando en los sacrificios del altar. Pero también las gentes desperdigadas por los alrededores andan en busca de descanso, y Jesús responderá como Pastor mesiánico.

Preguntas para meditar:

¿Somos discípulos fieles a la enseñanza de Jesús?

¿Proclamamos la Buena Nueva de palabra y en obras?

¿Hacemos un espacio en nuestra vida para orar, y Tener ese encuentro íntimo con Jesús?

Bautismos: Charlas, domingo después de misa. Padrinos deben ser casados por la iglesia., SISON PAREJA. Pueden ser padrinos solteros que no estén conviviendo con otra persona. Debe de tener todos los sacramentos de iniciación, BAPTISMO, PRIMERA COMUNION Y CONFIRMACION. Todos traer biblias católica. No habrá cuidado de niños, busque con tiempo quien se los cuide. Próxima charla: Septiembre 13, 2015.

Se está formando un equipo de soccer de Holy Ángels para los jóvenes del 4-6 grado mixto, (niños y niñas). Hoy estarán en la entrada de la iglesia dos personas dando la información. No desaproveches la oportunidad para que tus hijos participen en esta liga de la parroquia

Las registraciones para la doctrina de Primera Comunión y confirmación estarán abiertas en el mes de junio hasta el mes de agosto. Los niños de primer ingreso al registrarse traer acta de nacimiento y certificado de bautismo. Las familias tienen que ser miembros registrados de nuestra parroquia.

En el mes de septiembre se dará inicio a la preparación de adultos que no tengan los sacramentos completos (bautismo, primera comunión, confirmación). Llamar o llegar a la oficina para registrarse).

El 30 de agosto, es nuestro Festival Internacional de la Comida. Este evento es para recaudar fondos para nuestra parroquia. Si usted desea colaborar con donaciones, hablar con Rubén y Alicia Lara, Ricardo Núñez. O llamar a la oficina.
