Our Community Garden Needs Your Help!

Last year, two Holy Angels School Teachers, Colette Matsanka and Marie Maiura and their students built an “exceptional” compost bin for our garden. And beautiful compost is being made! This year, Pathmark is giving us “greens” and Wawa is giving us coffee grounds to enrich our compost. Volunteers are needed to help bring this each day to our garden. Could you help by picking up donations 1 day a week? Also needed is shredded paper. Call Marie, 547-8521, if you can help!

Thank You!

Our thanks to the Consiglio, Coyle, Goldberg, Keely, Luck and Treut Families for their help in welcoming Father Carlos Ochoa at the after-Mass receptions on the weekends of June 29/30 and July 6/7. We also thank our Hispanic Ministry and Patti Walters and the Environment Committee for all their assistance!

Help Us Stock the Food Pantry!

We now share our Food Pantry with Holy Family Outreach. We find by combining our resources, we are better able to serve the needy of our community. Holy Family Outreach has regularly scheduled hours for food pick-up and distribution, and serves our parish as well as their own.

Please bring a few non-perishable food items each week when you come to Mass, and leave them in the designated box at the entrance to Church. Donations are taken every Monday morning to the Food Pantry at Holy Family Church. Thank you!

Roman Collar

Among the vestments worn by the Catholic clergy, none is more distinctive than the priest's Roman collar. Although a fairly recent addition to clerical wardrobe, the collar helps people immediately identify their spiritual leader. Seminarians may also wear the collar before their ordination.

The Roman collar is a white band circling the neck, supported by a garment usually of black cloth. The height of the white band may vary. The black cloth may conceal all but a small square of white or leave it entirely exposed. The variations in the size and visibility of the collar stem from its national origins and have nothing to do with the rank of the clergy. Some prelates, though, may wear shades of purple or red cloth instead of black to designate their station.

Members of a religious order may wear a collar the color of their habit. In the last part of the 20th century the clergy shirt became available in various colors, in imitation of the diversification of color in professional men's clothing in the secular sphere. Black, though, remains the characteristic color for clergy apparel.

The practice of clergy wearing a special collar began in the 15th century and became widespread by the 17th. The collar simplified their wardrobe and became as much a sign of poverty as of position. As with other aspects of clerical vesture, it drew its inspiration from contemporary secular fashion but became identified with religious wear and developed accordingly. The white collar was originally made of linen, but today it is most commonly plastic, providing comfort in its wear, sharpness in appearance, and ease in its cleaning. When the clergy wear liturgical vestments at church the Roman collar may not be visible, but it remains the standard uniform for the clergy on the job.

INTRODUCING...

Children's Liturgy of the Word

WHO: Children age 6 – 8 who have not yet made their First Communion

WHEN: Coming Fall 2013
9:00 AM Mass at Holy Angels Church

Children's Liturgy of the Word has been a part of many parishes for decades. St. John the Baptist-Holy Angels Parish hopes to begin this program in the Fall of 2013 at the 9 AM Mass in Holy Angels Church.

Liturgy of the Word for Children is the practice of having the children leave the Sunday Assembly during the Liturgy of the Word and gather in a separate environment to engage in the Liturgy of the Word at a level more appropriate to the children's understanding. Their parents remain in the Sunday Assembly. The children return to their parent right before the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The purpose of making the liturgical experience more accessible to the assembled children is to nourish their faith experience and to affirm their value as important participants in the liturgy of God's Word.

What is the purpose of these specific celebrations of the Liturgy of the Word at Mass? The Liturgy of the Word for Children has, as its name suggests, a threefold purpose. It is a time to:

- ❖ engage in the public, communal rituals of the Church (Liturgy)
- ❖ listen to, break open, and respond to the scriptures (Word)
- ❖ celebrate the word in a way that children may understand (Children).

It is expected that Children's Liturgy of the Word will mirror the general structure and purpose of the Liturgy of the Word celebrated by the adult Assembly, but with the proclamation and breaking open of the scriptures adapted to meet the developmental stage and abilities of children.

Consequently, it is not intended to be a Sunday school or Scripture class. It is not a time for religious education or catechetical instruction. It is, furthermore, best suited to children of primary school age (6 – 8 who have not received First Communion yet), who generally have the capacity to listen to, and gain some understanding, of God's word. A program for younger children is held at the same time through the Religious Education Office (call 302/731-2209 for more information).
