Environment Committee – Linens

Each week linens are washed and ironed so that we have sanitized and pressed purificators and corporals in our churches. We have several openings in our rotation schedules at each church. If you can help 3-4 times a year, we could really use your help. Please contact Patti Walters to be added to the schedule. Cell (302) 593-5795 or email-walterspb@comcast.net.

We're Growing!

The St. John-Holy Angels Community Garden is underway for another season.

It's not too late for your family to enjoy just-picked, chemical-free summertime meals!

Act quickly – only one small plot left at $35. Our Church and the Garden Committee provide ready-to-plant plots, convenient watering system, fenced-in garden and mulched paths for walking.

To become part of the garden family with your own plot, call Lois at 454-9412 or email LJGIGI1936@AOL.COM and find out how to get started.

"I was hungry and you fed me." Matthew 25:35

The Outreach Pantry is always in need of breakfast foods, juices, canned fruit, peanut butter, jelly, pancake mix and syrup. But other foods you want to share are always welcome, too. Please drop off all food donations in the box at the entrance to Church.

Thank you for your continued generosity. Any questions, call Marie Ruskay, 547-8521.

What is Silent Prayer Community?

We are a group of 14 women who pray for parishioners' special intentions. This is done anonymously via a telephone prayer chain. If you have a special need about which you need prayer, please call 894-0726, 731-4297, 738-3033 or 738-0384 and our members will pray for you.

Coordinator Needed: Each month, the coordinator calls the five women that are the call-takers and then prepares a prayer list to send to the other member by email or regular mail. The church provides the stamps and envelopes. There are no meetings involved; each member prays individually for the intentions. Please consider joining this group; if interested, contact Cheryl at 738-0384 or cherylmc8@aol.com.

Over the next few years we will celebrate 50 years since the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy. This document, part of the Second Vatican Council, reformed the Liturgy in remarkable ways. Probably the most memorable way was that the Altar was turned around and the priest faced the people and the prayers were spoken in the language of the people for the first time. Over the next few months, we will explore key points of this document. Join our parish as we reflect on how this document has shaped our liturgy.

“Christ is always present in his Church, especially in its liturgical celebrations” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 7)

The Second Vatican Council re-emphasized an ancient image of the Church: the Body of Christ. Not only does the Body of Christ refer to the Eucharistic species, it is a biblical image for the Church. By receiving the Eucharistic species, the faithful are transformed by the Holy Spirit into Christ's own Body. People are united in communion with Christ and the other members of the Body of Christ, the Church. Christ is the Head of the Church, and the lay and ordained make up the Body of the Church. Christ's presence makes possible the union of the faithful with one another and with Christ himself. During the liturgy, people grow closer and deeper into Christ's presence. Christ's presence makes human transformation into deeper holiness possible.

“[Christ] is present in the sacrifice of the Mass . . . in the person of his minister” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 7)

The priest celebrant's role is theological as well as functional. The priest's role is more than that of simply leading the liturgy. Through the grace of ordination, the priest embodies the presence of Christ. The liturgical actions, the proclamation of the prayers, the presiding at sacraments, and so forth are efficacious because Christ is acting through the presiding celebrant to empower his prayers and actions. The minister acts in Christ's person. Christ is the Head of the Church, and the minister embodies Christ who presides and ministers to the members of the Church. Of course, this ministry is for the healing and building up of the entire Church since the minister embodies Christ's healing and compassionate presence.

Lecturas Domingo de LA SANTISIMA TRINIDAD

Exodo 34: 4b-6, 8-9

Dios nunca rompe su alianza. Dios restituye su alianza como signo de confianza en el pueblo y en su proyecto de salvación, pero sobre todo porque él es así: fiel, sin más calificativos.

Salmo Daniel 3:52,53,54,55,56

Bendito seas, Señor, Dios de nuestros padres, bendito sea tu santo y glorioso nombre.

Segunda Corintios 13: 11-13

Estén alegres y trabajen por su perfección, anímense mutuamente, vivan en paz y armonía.

Evangelio Juan 3: 16-18

Este breve pasaje es la conclusión de un breve diálogo más amplio entre Jesús y Nicodemo. Un fariseo que se interesa seriamente en el mensaje y la persona de Cristo. Judío bien instruido, se mira desafiado a abrazar el evangelio de Jesús. Nicodemo representa en la teología de san Juan a los judíos convertidos y su propia experiencia. Al evangelista le gusta significar la realidad de Cristo y su misión mediante símbolos y contrastes fuertes.
