The current issue of The Dialog features an important article about the Diocese of Wilmington Trust for the Welfare and Retirement of Priests. The priests of our Diocese dedicate their lives in service to the Church in the name of Christ. Theirs is a lifetime commitment of service to the laity.

At this time, the Trust is not adequately funded as the number of retired priests grows and costs increase. Preserving a dignified retirement for these priests is part of the Sustaining Hope for the Future Campaign.

For more information, pick up your copy of The Dialog as you leave Mass or visit the diocesan website, www.cdow.org. Click on the Sustaining Hope for the Future icon for the full story.

Quinceañera

Quinceañera is a Mexican celebration of a young woman's 15th birthday. It began as a temple ceremony signaling one's public acceptance of the responsibilities for womanhood. The Catholic Church has adapted it to celebrate a young woman's public profession of faith and readiness to accept the challenges of the church's mission to family and community.

The quinceañera is still an important ceremony in Latino communities because it affirms their rich cultural identity as Catholics, celebrates the handing down of faith to a new generation, extols the sacred role of women as leaders of faith, accents the gifts of women in society, and strengthens the bonds of family. Godparents are an integral part of the quinceañera. Parishes have opted for a modest, family-based celebration without the court and elaborate decorations. Where there is little religious preparation in parishes, more emphasis has gone to extravagant parties.

Beautiful celebrations of the quinceañera inspire the faithful. To prepare for the event, the youth may make a retreat to reflect on the ceremony and to prepare to reaffirm their faith. They may also celebrate reconciliation. The young women may serve the poor or perform another community service.

The quinceañera may take place at a parish Mass for several young people at a time. During the ceremony, parents may speak their gratitude to God, and those turning 15 may renew their baptismal promises, proclaim their commitment, and receive the blessing of family, church, and community. Some variations may be found. The ceremony has been adapted by various Latino communities, some non-Latino communities, and even by some young men.

Host Families Needed

We are currently looking for families to host international high school students who will be attending Sanford School, St. Mark's High School and Salesianum High School. Host families have the option of selecting the short-term summer session (July 20 – August 18), or the long-term 2013-2014 session. Hosts receive a stipend to cover the student's food, lodging, and school transportation ($ 1050 each month.)

Hosting an international student is very rewarding, and a way to experience another culture! The benefits are endless when you open your heart and home to welcome a new son or daughter into your family. This is a wonderful opportunity to introduce an international teenager to the American lifestyle. All candidates are exceptional students with wonderful records of academic and personal achievement. Students speak English, have their own spending money, and are fully covered by medical insurance.

INTRODUCING...

Children's Liturgy of the Word

WHO: Children age 6 – 8 who have not yet made their First Communion

WHEN: Coming Fall 2013
9:00 AM Mass at Holy Angels Church

Children's Liturgy of the Word has been a part of many parishes for decades. St. John the Baptist-Holy Angels Parish hopes to begin this program in the Fall of 2013 at the 9 AM Mass in Holy Angels Church.

Liturgy of the Word for Children is the practice of having the children leave the Sunday Assembly during the Liturgy of the Word and gather in a separate environment to engage in the Liturgy of the Word at a level more appropriate to the children's understanding. Their parents remain in the Sunday Assembly. The children return to their parent right before the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The purpose of making the liturgical experience more accessible to the assembled children is to nourish their faith experience and to affirm their value as important participants in the liturgy of God's Word.

What is the purpose of these specific celebrations of the Liturgy of the Word at Mass? The Liturgy of the Word for Children has, as its name suggests, a threefold purpose. It is a time to:

- ❖ engage in the public, communal rituals of the Church (Liturgy)
- ❖ listen to, break open, and respond to the scriptures (Word)
- ❖ celebrate the word in a way that children may understand (Children).

It is expected that Children's Liturgy of the Word will mirror the general structure and purpose of the Liturgy of the Word celebrated by the adult Assembly, but with the proclamation and breaking open of the scriptures adapted to meet the developmental stage and abilities of children.

Consequently, it is not intended to be a Sunday school or Scripture class. It is not a time for religious education or catechetical instruction. It is, furthermore, best suited to children of primary school age (6 – 8 who have not received First Communion yet), who generally have the capacity to listen to, and gain some understanding, of God's word. A program for younger children is held at the same time through the Religious Education Office (call 302/731-2209 for more information).
