

Welcome!

We welcome all visitors this weekend, and hope you will enjoy being part of our parish family. We invite you to continue joining us each week at our liturgical celebrations.

Welcome, New Parishioners!

We are pleased to welcome the following newly registered members to our parish community:

- Salina & Doug Crossland & Family
- Jazmin Osomo & Martin Flores & Family
- Carmen Freire
- Maria & Miguel Gomez & Family
- Dianne Graham

Eternal rest grant unto them...

Please remember in your prayers Vernon D. Dalgam and Agnes J. Keller. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Memorial Bouquet

Holy Angels Church

May 17/18, 2014

In Memory Of

Joe Magnus, husband

from Bernie Magnus

If you would like a Memorial Bouquet at either of our churches, please contact Patti Walters at (302) 593-5795 or waltersp@comcast.net.

Environment Committee – Linens

Each week linens are washed and ironed so that we have sanitized and pressed purificators and corporals in our churches. We have several openings in our rotation schedules at each church. If you can help 3-4 times a year, we could really use your help. Please contact Patti Walters to be added to the schedule. Cell (302) 593-5795 or email-waltersp@comcast.net.

Memorial Day Holiday

Please note: All Offices and Holy Angels School are closed on Monday, May 26, for the Memorial Day Holiday.

Memorial Day Field Mass

Bishop Malooly will preside at the 55th Annual Memorial Day Field Mass on Monday, May 26, at 10:00 AM at All Saints Cemetery. This is an appropriate way to thank all those who gave their lives so that we can live in freedom. Seating and protection from the weather are provided. All Saints Cemetery is located at 6001 Kirkwood Highway, midway between Wilmington and Newark.

The Outreach Pantry is always in need of breakfast foods, juices, canned fruit, peanut butter, jelly, pancake mix and syrup. But other foods you want to share are always welcome, too. Please drop off all food donations in the box at the entrance to Church.

Thank you for your continued generosity. Any questions, call Marie Ruskay, 547-8521.

Save Transportation Stipends for Catholic School Families

Each year, parents who send their children to Catholic Schools in Delaware save the state an estimated $150 million, while supporting Delaware's public schools with their taxes. In return, the state gives these families a stipend to reimburse them for a small percentage of their transportation costs.

This small transportation stipend is now in danger of elimination! Tell the governor and your representatives in the Delaware General Assembly that families who sacrifice to send their children to Catholic schools deserve to keep their transportation stipend. Please send your representatives in Dover an email message through the Delaware Catholic Advocacy Network. Click on the "Save Transportation Stipends" link at the www.cdow.org website.

Come Grow With Us

The St. John-Holy Angels Community Garden is warming up for another season. Since the blessing of the garden in 2010, over 500 lbs. of produce has been distributed in the community at a value close to a thousand dollars.

The gardeners and their families have enjoyed the fruits of their labor, too. We've had just-picked, chemical-free lettuce, tomatoes, beans, potatoes, tomatillos, jalapenos, squash, peas, herbs and more for our summer meals; directly from our own garden plots.

Your family, too, can enjoy the same summertime meals!!! — There are still four plots left. Lot Rental Reduced! 15 ft. x 15 ft. lots are $35 each, and 2 larger plots, 15 ft. x 21 ft. are $50 each for the season. Our Church and the Garden Committee provide ready-to-plant plots, convenient watering system, fenced-in garden.

To become part of the garden family with your own plot, call Lois at 454-9412 or email LJGIGI1936@AOL.COM and find out how to get started.

Visitors for Christ

Visitors for Christ are men and women commissioned by the parish to serve and minister to the sick, the convalescing, the elderly and the homebound of our parish family. We make short visits to homes, hospitals, and nursing homes bringing the prayers of the Parish and the Eucharist when requested. We also offer the opportunity to pray the rosary with you for your personal intentions and the needs of our community.

If you or someone you know would like a visit from the Visitors For Christ, please call the Parish Center, 731-2200, or June, 366-0711.

Silent Prayer Community

Our parish has a group of people who will earnestly pray for any needs that you might have. This is done anonymously via a telephone prayer chain. If you have a special need about which you need prayer, please call 894-0726, 731-4297, or 369-3330, and our members will pray for you. Please let us know when your prayer has been answered, so that we too might give thanks.

"I believe..."

Every Catholic shares a belief with every other Catholic. We believe in one God. We believe in three divine persons. We believe in forgiveness. We believe in eternal life. We each hold this belief. When we were baptized, we spoke it for the first time, or our parents and godparents spoke it for us. Now, every Sunday at Mass, we recite the Creed. We may disagree with other Catholics on less important matters, but the Creed holds us together on what counts the most.

The first word of the Creed in Latin is Credo, and it means "I believe." When the Mass first went into English after the Second Vatican Council, the translation used the words "We believe." This helped our sense of participation at Mass. We come not just by ourselves but as a community, expressing together our common faith. Other vernacular languages did not make the same choice, so it has been common to hear the equivalent of "I believe" in Catholic churches in other nations around the world.

Now the Vatican has asked that all vernacular languages express the Creed in the first person singular, "I believe." This is consistent with the tradition going back to the sixth century, when the Creed began to appear as a regular feature of Sunday Mass, first in Spain and then throughout the rest of the Catholic world. The community recited the Creed together, but almost always in the first person singular, "I believe."

St. Thomas Aquinas said, "The confession of faith is handed down in the Creed, as it were, as coming from the person of the whole Church, united by means of the Faith." When we say, "I believe," we speak not only for ourselves—we speak for the church.

Lecturas V Domingo de Pascua

Hechos 6:1-7

Salmo Responsorial 32: 1-2, 4-5, 18-19

Primera Pedro 2: 4-9

Evangelio Juan 14: 1-12

Que no se turbe nuestro corazón. Estamos al comienzo de la despedida de Jesús. No basta con ser personas religiosas, hay que ser cristianos.

Los discípulos creen en Dios pero les falta creer más en Jesucristo. Jesús es el Camino, la Verdad y la vida. Si somos fieles estaremos con Jesucristo en las mansiones que el Padre tiene preparadas y habitaremos con él eternamente. Recordemos que Jesús es el Camino que nos conduce al Padre.
