Visitors for Christ

Visitors for Christ are men and women commissioned by the parish to serve and minister to the sick, the convalescing, the elderly and the homebound of our parish family.

We make short visits to homes, hospitals, and nursing homes bringing the prayers of the Parish and the Eucharist when requested. We also offer the opportunity to pray the rosary with you for your personal intentions and the needs of our community.

If you or someone you know would like a visit from the Visitors for Christ, please call the Parish Center, 731-2200, or June, 366-0711.

Hospitality Before Mass

Taking time before Mass to say hello, to greet others (not just our friends, but especially visitors and people we do not know), to offer a handshake of welcome and a friendly glance – these acts are an essential part of our participation in the Liturgy. When we assemble we make visible the Body of Christ, and we must make visible that Christ who welcomed all who came to him.

The ministry of hospitality can no longer be left to the priest greeting people at the door or to the ushers. There are so many among us on Sunday who feel isolated and alienated, so many hungry for a sign of welcome. You and I know that when we pray God listens, God has time for us. Not all of our sisters and brothers believe this; they need signs in order to believe. We, the Assembly, must be the sign and sacrament of God's hospitality. A friendly smile, a handshake can show our appreciation to others that they have come to give witness of their faith to us. "Mrs. Jones, how happy I am that you could come this morning...and with your husband being so ill..."

That is why this weekend we are restarting our practice of greeting one another before the Entrance Procession Hymn. We must not let our hello wait until the Sign of Peace. Greet those around you, but most importantly, go outside of your comfort zone: greet those whom you don't know – those you have seen for years and want to know their name or those you are seeing for the first time. We are all brothers and sisters in Christ. This is our rehearsal for the heavenly banquet. Let us rehearse now for our heavenly feast where all will be united in Christ.
