From Trash to Treasure

Water is Life Kenya (WILK) is expanding its jewelry model and needs your help. WILK takes used paper and makes beautiful beads, necklaces and bracelets from trash. This blesses the Kenyans who get a job, and all profits bless Kenyan communities with the gift of water.

WILK is looking for your help to make this work prosper. First, you can buy our jewelry at White Clay Creek Fest on May 5 or at our office on Main Street in Newark. Second, you can volunteer to host a bead party. We provide all you and your friends need to make personalized beaded jewelry, and the host gets to keep 30% of all sales.

Learn more about these and other volunteer opportunities by emailing info@waterislifekenya.com or calling 302-894-7335.
