Question for the Week

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

“Why is it hard sometimes to love your neighbor? How can you do a better job of following Jesus' commandment?”

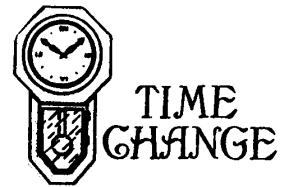

Thank you for your generous support of the Sustaining Hope for the Future campaign. We have pledges totaling $341,201 from 138 parishioners. Our parish goal is $854,000 over 3 years. The Diocese will receive 60% and our parish 40% of all funds received up to our goal. Campaign proceeds received after our goal is met will be 60% for the parish and 40% for our Diocese.

The Sustaining Hope for the Future campaign is a great opportunity for our parish to take care of our long-term needs. Please review the campaign materials, pray about your response, and continue to spread the positive message about this important effort!

Jewelry Sale to Benefit Water is Life Kenya (WILK)

Just in time for one-of-a-kind Christmas Gifts, Beyond Just Faith is hosting a handmade jewelry sale at Holy Angels on Saturday, November 8, following the 5:00 PM Mass, and Sunday, November 9, after the 9:00 and 11:00 AM Masses. Look for our tables in the Gathering Space. The sale proceeds will go to Kenyan beaders and community water projects; 82% goes directly to Water Projects.

Joyce Tannian (WILK Founder) and friends

Joyce is a Newark native and attended Holy Angels School with her three siblings. WILK water projects are initiated by local communities and range from shallow wells, rainwater harvesting systems, to pipeline extensions and "elephant-proofing" water points. Once water is available, they work with groups of livestock herders to better market their animals and provide micro-loans so they can earn a sustainable living. Since 2007, WILK has helped over 25,000 people and their animals live water-secure lives. Visit their website at www.waterislifekenya.com for more information. If you have questions about the sale, contact Lois Jackson at 302-635-4367 or Marie Ruzskay at 302-547-8521

"I was hungry and you fed me." Matthew 25:35

Fifteen families came to the food pantry one evening several weeks ago. Four of them were new clients. More people are coming in for food, and we are dangerously low on every thing. We are in dire need of the basics: pancake mix/syrup, peanut butter/jelly, pasta/sauce, vegetables, fruit, beverages, small canned hams, beef stew and soups. Whatever you can donate, we can use. Thank you for your continued generosity! Please call Marie Ruskay, 547-8521, if you have any new ideas on how to keep our pantry full.

"Learning a New Musical Mass Setting"

In the Roman Catholic Liturgy, composers, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, for hundreds of years have considered it the pinnacle of their career to have composed and performed a setting of the Roman Catholic Mass.

Composers such as Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, Brahms, and tons more have had their Masses composed and performed throughout the world. Even today, contemporary composers set the post Vatican II Liturgy to music.

After Bach's Mass in B Minor was performed for many years, it came time for a new setting, so Beethoven came along and composed his Mass in C Major. Even today, our Mass settings have been refreshed with the 2010 revision of the Roman Missal. In our parish we have learned three new/revised Mass settings in that time period. Learning a new musical Mass setting provides an opportunity for liturgical renewal and musical renewal in our parish every few months.

The new Mass setting that we have learned over the past few months is called "Mass of Joy & Peace" by composer Tony Alonso. We have not learned a new musical setting in over 18 months, so the learning of a new setting helps keep our celebration of the liturgy "ever ancient, yet ever new." While the process of learning a new Mass setting can be tedious, eventually, with practice, we will all get the hang of it and sing with full gusto and energy.

Thank you for your patience and for always participating in song and voice at every one of our Liturgies. Sung participation is very rare at Catholic Masses and I am very happy that is not the case at this parish! I am always happy to help lead an Assembly of beautifully voiced singers in the pews here at St. John-Holy Angels! Thank you for singing loudly and proudly to our God...keep it up!

Lecturas de este domingo: 26 de Octubre

1ª lectura: Exodo 22: 20-26

Salmo Responsorial: 17. “Yo te amo Señor, tú eres mi fortaleza”

2ª lectura: 1 Tesalonicenses 1: 5c-10

Evangelio: Mateo 22: 34-40

Evangelio: El amor a Dios y al prójimo en el mismo nivel y con la misma importancia. Las palabras de Jesús a la pregunta por el mandamiento madre de todos los mandamientos, van mucho más allá de lo concebido. Si tenemos en cuenta que todo piadoso repetía el “Shema” o “Escucha Israel” (Dt 6:2-6) en la mañana y en la tarde la gente tenía muy claro que el mandamiento principal era amar a Dios. Sin embargo, Jesús agrega en igualdad de importancia el amor al prójimo. Aquí está su originalidad principal. Es muy diferente aceptar el amor a Dios y al prójimo por separado que unirlos en uno solo. Un amor aplicando todas las capacidades. El Evangelio señala que se debe amar a Dios con todas las capacidades del ser humano (corazón, alma, mente, y fuerzas) y con la entereza de cada uno de ellos. Ahora bien, en caso del prójimo no se encontró mejor manera de decirlo más que a través de la indicación de uno mismo. Se hace eco de aquella antigua regla de oro común en la antigüedad: “haz a otros como quieres que te hagan”. Es tan sagrado el amor a Dios como el amor al hermano. Uno y otro deben ser criterio fundamental de nuestra vida.

Ya estamos en la estación de otoño y por consiguiente estamos en las celebraciones propias de esta fecha: celebración de todos los santos el primero de noviembre y el día siguiente 2 conmemoramos a todos nuestros difuntos. La iglesia conmemora estos dos días desde hace mucho tiempo, esto nos sirve para que tengamos un momento de reflexión y nos pongamos en unión con toda la iglesia universal y con Dios de una manera más íntima y reflexionemos que todos estamos llamados a ser santos y que el paso por este mundo es momentáneo. El 27 de noviembre celebramos el “Día de Acción de Gracias” en el cual recordamos la unión de los peregrinos y los nativos americanos, en el cual compartieron su comida cada quien aportando lo que tenían y los recursos con los que contaban. El domingo 23 celebramos a Cristo Rey “Jesús como rey del universo”, y con esta celebración cerramos el Tiempo Ordinario. Para darle entrada al Tiempo de Adviento el 30 de noviembre.
