

Welcome!

We welcome all visitors this weekend, and hope you will enjoy being part of our parish family. We invite you to continue joining us each week at our liturgical celebrations.

Are You New To The Parish? Don't Forget To Register!

Whether you've recently moved into the parish, or have lived here for some time, it's important for you to register in our faith community. To register, stop in at the Parish Center. Office hours are listed on the front of the bulletin.

Also, YOUNG ADULTS, if you have moved from your parents' home into your own place, it is important that you also call the Parish Center, 731-2200, to let us know your whereabouts, so you can remain a registered parishioner at St. John-Holy Angels.

Food Pantry - St. John-Holy Angels Collaboration with Holy Family

Report from the field: . .

Mr. Judd at Holy Family - “During the week of 6/22- 6/26, Holy Angels and Holy Family joined to feed 33 families. That’s an average of 6-7 families a day. The shelves are reasonably well stocked, but typically draw down during the summer as parishioners go on vacation, but hunger does not. Thanks to the group at Holy Angels and Holy Family for all they do. Holy Family Outreach is active.”

To try to make up for what the summer vacationers aren’t putting in, can we add a couple of items to our usual donation?

Social Concerns

Care for God’s Creation

In the days following release of Pope Francis’s encyclical on the care of our “common home”, “Laudato Si”, the media had a lot to say about its content and the impact it would have on the world. Two websites that may give you more insight into this challenging topic are: <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/environment/>, which contains a link to the entire encyclical, and <http://www.catholic climate covenant.org>, where you can learn how to reduce your carbon footprint and other climate change information from a Catholic perspective.

Silent Prayer Community

Our parish has a group of people who will earnestly pray for any needs that you might have. This is done anonymously via a telephone prayer chain. If you have a special need about which you need prayer, please call 894-0726, 731-4297 or 737-1333, and our members will pray for you. Please let us know when your prayer has been answered, so that we too might give thanks.

Part-time Bookkeeper Needed

A position for a part-time bookkeeper, at least 20 hours per week, is presently available at here at St. John-Holy Angels. The position will be available in early July. Applicants must have the following qualifications: Associate Degree in Business or Accounting with a minimum of two years’ experience in non-profit accounting or bookkeeping or an equivalent combination of education and experience, excellent written and oral communications and interpersonal skills, skilled in Microsoft Excel and Word, Business Works, experience with Parish Data System is helpful. Applications should be e-mailed to apress@holy.angels.net or mailed to: Amy Press, St. John-Holy Angels Parish, 82 Possum Park Road, Newark, DE 19711.

Today...

JOIN in the worldwide mission of Jesus!

JOIN the Propagation of the Faith!

As disciples of Jesus, baptized into the Church and strengthened by the Holy Spirit, we are called to draw others to Christ: others in our family, in our neighborhoods; others even “to the ends of the earth.” More than 2,000 years after the birth of Jesus, some two-thirds of our human family do not yet know Him in faith as we do.

Through the Propagation of the Faith, we can reach those at work at “the ends of the earth” as we help to support the Church’s evangelizing work in more than 1,150 mission dioceses worldwide. We are needed to offer daily prayer and regular financial help as well.

Please join the Propagation of the Faith today. Our parish will surely become more vibrant in faith as we become more missionary.

SCHOOL NEWS

The faculty and staff wish everyone a relaxing, safe and enjoyable summer! The 2015-2016 school year will begin on Tuesday, August 25th.

There are limited openings in various grades (Pre-K3 – Grade 8). Applications are still being accepted. For more information, please call the School Office, 731-2210.

Visitors for Christ

Visitors for Christ are men and women commissioned by the parish to serve and minister to the sick, the convalescing, the elderly and the homebound of our parish family. We make short visits to homes, hospitals, and nursing homes bringing the prayers of the Parish and the Eucharist when requested. We also offer the opportunity to pray the rosary with you for your personal intentions and the needs of our community. If you or someone you know would like a visit from the Visitors For Christ, please call the Parish Center, 731-2200, or June, 366-0711.

Praying the Eucharistic Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer is the most important part of the mass. It is also the most demanding part. The Second Vatican Council invited the full, conscious, active participation of the people at Mass. During the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest has almost all the words, but the Assembly is not passive. Even here—especially here—in silence and acclamation, we offer full, conscious, active participation.

As the prayer begins, the priest invites us to lift up our hearts. We prepare ourselves to enter into prayer. "[T]he meaning of this Prayer is that the whole congregation of the faithful joins with Christ in confessing the great deeds of God and in the offering of Sacrifice" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 78). The priest prays the Eucharistic Prayer aloud in the name of the people, but it is essential that all the people pray along. "The people, for their part, should associate themselves with the Priest in faith and in silence, as well as by means of their interventions as prescribed in the course of the Eucharistic Prayer: namely the responses in the Preface dialogue, the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy), the acclamation after the Consecration, the acclamatory Amen after the concluding doxology, as well as other acclamations approved by the Conference of Bishops with the recognitio of the Holy See" (147).

While praying the Eucharistic Prayer, it may help to think of the following: Give thanks for all that God has done. Ask the Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ. Remember what Jesus said and did at the Last Supper. Offer to God this holy sacrifice. Ask the Holy Spirit to transform every one. Pray for the needs of the living and the dead.

Eucharistic Prayer Choice

The Eucharistic Prayers used at Mass are in four categories. The first group, simply numbered one through four, contains the principal prayers for Mass throughout the liturgical year.

A second group is used for Masses of Reconciliation. The two prayers of this group were originally composed for the Holy Year 1975 when Paul VI was pope, but they have been approved for general use, especially in penitential seasons and days when the scriptures invite us to reconcile.

A third group is for Masses with children. These three prayers were originally composed with specific age groups in mind, but they are used interchangeably now for any group of preadolescents. These Eucharistic Prayers are still lengthy, but they aim to engage children through a simplified vocabulary and the singing of additional acclamations.

The final group is for Masses for various needs and occasions. Masses may be offered for a variety of intentions, such as the Church, society, weather, and family. There are four variations of the Eucharistic prayer for Masses for various needs and occasions, each with its own preface and intercessions.

Of the first group, Eucharistic Prayer I is recommended on Sundays, solemnities, and feasts of the saints mentioned in the prayer. It is also called the Roman Canon, and it was the only Eucharistic prayer used in the Roman Rite for many centuries. Prayer II is based on a text from the third or fourth century. It is shorter and recommended for weekdays. Prayer III, newly composed after the Second Vatican Council, is especially fitting for Sundays and feasts. Prayer IV, which tells about salvation history, is especially suited for weekdays and Sundays in Ordinary Time. Its preface never varies.

1 Lectura Amós 7: 12-15

Salmo Responsorial 84

“Muéstranos, Señor, tu misericordia y danos tu salvación”.

II Lectura Efesios 1: 3-14

Evangelio Marcos 6: 7-13

Los enviados de Jesús deben ir por pares, no solo para brindarse compañía y apoyo, sino para respaldar lo que dicen. Ellos deberán llegar a las casas, confiar en las gentes que encontrarán. Jesús los pone en condición mendicante. Esta es la garantía de su autenticidad y su fidelidad. Su pobreza es extrema; los apóstoles del reino deben ser testigos elocuentes de la providencia de Dios. Quienes reciben el evangelio les proveerán pan y alojamiento.

Con este envío, Jesús busca reintegrar el tejido social de las casas mediante una vuelta a los valores consagrados por la ley: “fe absoluta y radical en el Dios de la alianza”, en la hospitalidad y en la solidaridad familiar. Pero les advierte a sus enviados que no todo será éxito.

Para reflexionar

¿Somos portadores del Evangelio en el medio que nos desenvolvemos?

Bautismos: Charlas, domingo después de misa. Padrinos deben ser casados por la iglesia., SISON PAREJA. Pueden ser padrinos solteros que no estén conviviendo con otra persona. Debe de tener todos los sacramentos de iniciación, BAUTISMO, PRIMERA COMUNION Y CONFIRMACION. Todos traer biblias católica. No habrá cuidado de niños, busque con tiempo quien se los cuide. Próxima charla: Julio 12, 2015.

Las registraciones para la doctrina de Primera Comunión y confirmación estarán abiertas en el mes de junio hasta el mes de agosto. Los niños de primer ingreso al registrarse traer acta de nacimiento y certificado de bautismo. Las familias tienen que ser miembros registrados de nuestra parroquia.

En el mes de septiembre se dará inicio a la preparación de adultos que no tengan los sacramentos completos (bautismo, primera comunión, confirmación). Llamar o llegar a la oficina para registrarse).

El 30 de agosto, es nuestro Festival Internacional de la Comida. Este evento es para recaudar fondos para nuestra parroquia. Si usted desea colaborar con donaciones, hablar con Rubén y Alicia Lara, Ricardo Núñez. O llamar a la oficina.

Se va a formar dos equipos de soccer, niños y niñas que estén entre el 4-8 grado. En Septiembre será la selección. Si está interesado en que sus hijos participen, contactarse con: angela.hahn@comcast.net.
