“I was hungry and you fed me.” Matthew 25:35

You would think now that school is out, the Outreach Pantry would have fewer families in need. But just the opposite is true. Since children can’t get lunches at school, parents are hard put to feed their children another meal every day. And that’s right here in Newark, DE. So, if you can donate more juices and lunch-type foods, they would really appreciate it.

And if you would like to take your family on a field trip to the Outreach Pantry during the summer to see what it looks like, how it is run, and if volunteers are needed, stop by the Pantry at Holy Family Church on Wednesday or Friday between 10:00 AM and 12 Noon. You might call them at 861-0143 to let them know you are coming. Enjoy your summer and help the less fortunate enjoy theirs by donating food or making a contribution to the St. Vincent de Paul poor box.

Any questions, call Marie Ruzskay, 547-8521.

What is Silent Prayer Community?

We are a group of 14 women who pray for parishioners' special intentions. This is done anonymously via a telephone prayer chain. If you have a special need about which you need prayer, please call 894-0726, 731-4297, 738-3033 or 738-0384 and our members will pray for you.

Coordinator Needed: Each month, the coordinator calls the five women that are the call-takers and then prepares a prayer list to send to the other member by email or regular mail. The church provides the stamps and envelopes. There are no meetings involved; each member prays individually for the intentions. Please consider joining this group; if interested, contact Cheryl at 738-0384 or cherylmc8@aol.com.

If you or someone you know would like a visit from the Visitors For Christ, please call the Parish Center, 731-2200, or June, 366-0711.

WHY WE NEED A HEALTH CARE CONSCIENCE RIGHTS ACT

USCCB Fact Sheet

2014

The right of religious liberty, the First Freedom guaranteed by our Constitution, includes a right to provide and receive health care without being required to violate our most fundamental beliefs. Especially since 1973, when abortion became legal nationwide, federal lawmakers have worked in a bipartisan way to ensure that Americans can fully participate in our health care system without being forced to take part in abortion or other procedures that violate their conscience.

But the need to improve current laws is clear, because the right of conscience is still under attack:

- Under the new health care reform law, the federal government is demanding that almost all health plans fully cover female sterilization and a wide range of drugs and devices to prevent pregnancy, including those that can cause an early abortion. Even individuals and organizations with a religious objection to abortion, sterilization or other procedures are forced to take part.
- A Catholic agency that for years had provided excellent service lost its federal grant to serve the victims of human trafficking, because it could not, in conscience, comply with a new requirement to facilitate abortions and other morally objectionable procedures for its clients.
- Dedicated health care professionals, especially nurses, still face pressure to assist in abortions under threat of losing their jobs or their eligibility for training programs.
- In some states, government officials are seeking to force even Catholic hospitals to allow abortions or provide abortion coverage in order to continue or expand their ministry.

This is why members of Congress of both parties sponsored the Health Care Conscience Rights Act (H.R. 940, S. 1204). The Act would improve federal law in three ways:

1. Correcting loopholes and other deficiencies in the major federal law preventing governmental discrimination against health care providers that do not help provide or pay for abortions.
2. Inserting a conscience clause into the health care reform law, so its mandates for particular “benefits” in private health plans will not be used to force insurers, employers and individuals to violate their consciences or give up their health insurance.
3. Adding a “private right of action” to existing federal conscience laws, so those whose consciences are being violated can go to court to defend their rights. (Current enforcement is chiefly at the discretion of the Department of Health and Human Services, which is itself sponsoring some attacks on conscience rights.)

All House and Senate members should be urged to support and co-sponsor the Health Care Conscience Rights Act, so our First Freedom can regain its proper place as a fundamental right protected in our health care system. For more details, see: www.usccb.org/conscience.

What can you do to ensure the protection of religious freedom at home and abroad?

Text the word “Freedom” to 377377 for updates from the bishops on current threats to religious liberty. Also, please visit www.usccb.org/freedom for more information on how you can take action to protect religious liberty!

Lecturas Domingo de "EL SANTISIMO CUERPO Y SANGRE DE CRISTO"

Deuteronomio 8:2-3, 14b-16a

En el desierto puede suceder todo, gracia y desgracia. El pueblo anda bajo la guía de Moisés. En la aflicción y la prueba en vez de encontrar desánimo el pueblo deberá encontrar fortaleza y confianza de su capacidad para responder a Dios.

Salmo Daniel 14: 12-13, 14-15, 19-20

Glorifica al Señor Jerusalén; alaba a tu Dios.

Primera Corintios 10: 16-17

En este texto encontramos unos de los testimonios más antiguos del misterio central de la iglesia: La Eucaristía.

Evangelio Juan 6: 51-58 El evangelio de Juan coloca nuestra existencia ante Jesús. Ante él se decide toda la vida del que cree. De ahí que la incredulidad se refiere al "mundo" que es todo aquello que se opone a Jesús y su proyecto salvador. Para combatir el anti-semitismo, conviene recordar que Jesús es judío igual que los apóstoles y muchos de los primeros cristianos.
