“Under My Roof”

After the priest invites the people to receive communion, they express their unworthiness for it. The first English translation had the people say, “Lord, I am not worthy to receive you”, but the revised translation puts it this way: “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof”.

The revision expresses more closely the words that have always been there in Latin. The first translation recognized the difficulty of the metaphor, but the revised missal restores it in hopes that it will provoke meditation and prayer.

Why “under my roof”? The words, of course, come from the story of Jesus’s healing the servant of the centurion (Matthew 8:8; Luke 7:6). In Matthew’s account, the centurion himself comes to Jesus, but in Luke’s version, he sends representatives. In either case, he doesn’t feel right having Jesus come to his home, and he has complete trust in Jesus’s power over sickness and evil. And, perhaps, he just wants to avoid inconveniencing the Master. His statement is one of faith, trust and respect. So Jesus works the miracle.

The invitation to communion should call this story to mind. Some people may mistakenly think that the new words refer to the roof of the mouth. But its intent is to quote the centurion. We should have the same attitude: faith, trust and respect. Jesus, unflinchingly, in spite of our unworthiness, still draws us to his table. We are not praying for the physical healing of our servant; we are praying for the spiritual healing of our soul. We can be confident that our prayer will be answered as we leave our place, go to the minister, and present ourselves for communion.

A Vocation Reflection 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s psalm response, we pray “Lord, in your great love, answer me.” The Lord beckons to us, too, inviting us to answer Him out of love. Each of us is chosen, each of us is called. If you think He might be calling you to priesthood or religious life, and if you’d like some company on the way to answering Him, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations at (302) 573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org. Be sure to visit our website, www.cdow.org/vocations!

2017 Quo Vadis Days

...for high school and college students will be Thursday, July 27 to Saturday, July 29 in Malvern, PA. This event offers a time of prayer, fraternity, sports and recreation focused on the life and ministry of the Priesthood. You will spend three days with other young men who have the same interest and aspiration in life. Is God calling me to be a Priest?

For more information and to register online, go to www.cdow.org/vocations. Registration deadline is July 9.

Do You Have a School Bond?

The Holy Angels School Educational Foundation stopped issuing Bonds as of the 2012 school year. The Finance Council has determined it no longer necessary to maintain the Fund and has elected to begin the process to recall all outstanding bonds and to close the Fund. Bond holders may redeem their bond for its face value OR donate it back to the Parish. It is our hope you will exercise one of these options at your earliest convenience. Either option may be accomplished by endorsing the Bond and returning it to the Parish Center.

Should you be unable to locate your Bond, redemption or donation is still possible by completing a "Lost Bond Affidavit", available at the Parish Office.

Visitors for Christ

Visitors for Christ are men and women commissioned by the parish to serve and minister to the sick, the convalescing, the elderly and the homebound of our parish family.

We make short visits to homes, hospitals, and nursing homes bringing the prayers of the Parish and the Eucharist when requested. We also offer the opportunity to pray the rosary with you for your personal intentions and the needs of our community.

If you or someone you know would like a visit from the Visitors For Christ, please call the Parish Center, 731-2200, or June, 366-0711.

Gentle Winds

Blow, blow, oh gentle winds of nature.
Spread the seeds of life, the leaves of fall.

Blow, blow oh gentle winds of grandeur that cool the heat of day at evenfall.

'Tis the gentle breeze that lifts the hearts of those oppressed,
to capture the essence of a peaceful day.

Blow, blow oh gentle wind of heaven and ease the misery of those who pray.

Blow, blow oh gentle breath of God
and soothe coming of the day.

Blow, blow oh gentle wind.

XII DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Primera lectura Jeremías 20: 10-13

Salmo Responsorial 69: “Que me escuche tu gran bondad, Señor”.

Segunda lectura: Romanos 5:12-15

Evangelio Mateo 10:26-33

Jesús habla a sus discípulos sobre la misión. Les ha dicho lo que deben de hacer y cuáles son las dificultades que les acechan, y ahora les enseña cómo deben superar cualquier situación desfavorable. Les exhorta para que, a pesar de los miedos que les van a acechar, no dejen la misión; para que, a pesar de las críticas que sufrirán, no hagan concesiones en contra del Evangelio. Y les pide que no se deje doblegar por el miedo ni vencer por la persecución, porque todo, incluso la vida, está en las manos de Dios.
