Pentecost Vespers
Sunday, June 8 6:30 PM
St. John Church

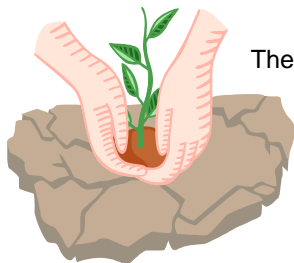

The Easter Season officially ends at sundown on Pentecost Sunday. Please join us as we end our 50 days of rejoicing in the Lord’s triumph over death. We will celebrate Vespers (Evening Prayer) as a community at St. John Church at 6:30 PM. Take some time to enter into this very moving and different prayer experience!

Thank You from Birthright

Birthright wishes to thank the parishioners at St. John-Holy Angels for our support of their Mother’s Day Rose Sale. We raised $1178. On behalf of our mothers and their babies, thank you very much!

We’re Growing!

The St. John-Holy Angels Community Garden is underway for another season.

It’s not too late for your family to enjoy just-picked, chemical-free summertime meals!!

Act quickly – only one small plot left at $35. Two larger plots are available at $50 each for this season. Our Church and the Garden Committee provide ready-to-plant plots, convenient watering system, fenced-in garden and mulched paths for walking.

To become part of the garden family with your own plot, call Lois at 454-9412 or email LJGIGI1936@AOL.COM and find out how to get started.

“I was hungry and you fed me.” Matthew 25:35

I recently read this quote from Pope Francis and think it confirms what we are doing here at St. John-Holy Angels: “My hope is that we will be moved by the fear of remaining shut up within structures which give us a false sense of security, while at our door people are starving, and Jesus does not tire of saying to us: ‘Give them something to eat’ (Mark 6:37).”

Sunday after Sunday we give of our riches to the Outreach Pantry so the hungry don’t starve. We are living God’s Word, and that is good. Keep up the good work! And if you forget to bring food on Sundays, put a donation in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box.

Send your thoughts on this topic to Marie Ruskay, 547-8521 or marie_rus@yahoo.com.

Over the next few years we will celebrate 50 years since the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy. This document, part of the Second Vatican Council, reformed the Liturgy in remarkable ways. Probably the most memorable way was that the Altar was turned around and the priest faced the people and the prayers were spoken in the language of the people for the first time. Over the next few months, we will explore key points of this document. Join our parish as we reflect on how this document has shaped our liturgy.

“ . . . By baptism, all are plunged into the paschal mystery of Christ: they die with him, are buried with him, and rise with him” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 6)

The Paschal Mystery, the mystery of Christ’s Passion, Death, and Resurrection, is the heart of liturgical celebrations. The faithful participate in this mystery by the power of the Spirit, who allows them to be united with Christ himself. The heart of this mystery is Christ’s saving (which means “healing” in Latin) presence, which heals fragmented lives. The Second Vatican Council reminds us that our union with Christ and the Church occurred in the waters of Baptism. This union with Christ is why, as St. Augustine once said, we are called Christian, because our identity has changed. Baptism is thus an entrance into union or communion with Christ and his Church (this is one reason why baptismal fonts are often near the entrance of the worship space). Baptism is nourished and strengthened in the celebration of the Eucharist, especially on the Lord’s Day, Sunday.
