Share in the Spirit Collection
 Tuition Assistance Program

Next weekend's second collection throughout the Diocese will help to make the dream of a Catholic education a reality for struggling Catholic families. Monies raised through this collection, coupled with the Diocese's tuition assistance endowment will provide financial assistance to hundreds of deserving families who seek a Catholic education for their children but who cannot afford the full cost of tuition.

Through this collection, our Bishop is reaching out to believing and worshipping Catholic to assist him in ensuring that the Catholic commitment to total education of our children does not fade away because people cannot afford it. Since the Church has the mission to educate and since this mission directly affects the quality of life we experience as Catholics, all of us have a stake in Catholic education.

To learn more about the Share in the Spirit collection, please consult this week's edition of The Dialog, or the Diocesan website at www.cdow.org/giving/development-share-in-the-spirit.

A Vocation Reflection
 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time
 September 17, 2017

In today's second reading, St. Paul reminds the Romans (and us) that "None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For it we live, we live for the Lord." While that is true for all of the baptized, some are called to live lives consecrated for the service of the Church as priests, deacons or religious. If you think God might be inviting you to some form of consecrated life, please call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations at (302) 573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org. Be sure to visit our website, www.cdow.org/vocations!

XXIV DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

LECTURAS

Eclesiástico 27: 30-28:7

Salmo Responsorial 103 “El Señor es compasivo y misericordioso”

II Lectura Romanos 14:7-9

Evangelio Mateo 18: 21-35

Según el Eclesiástico, la discordia es un pecado grave, pues genera división. La ofensa comienza con la palabra y la rabia que toma proporciones devastadoras cuando el ser humano está ciego por el poder o el deseo de venganza. La condición para pedir el perdón de Dios es ser alguien que perdona. Los discípulos de Jesús continúan con una mentalidad legalista y cuantificable; él sin embargo, les intenta abrir la visión llevarles a la comprensión de que no hay límites para el perdón. Quien vive la experiencia de ser perdonado puede ser lo suficientemente libre para perdonar.
